

History

2007 The partnership becomes a GmbH + Co. KG (limited liability company and limited commercial partnership) with managing partners Joachim H. Faust and Gerhard G. Feldmeyer and partners Gerd Heise, Remigiusz Otrzonsek, Werner Sübai, and Volker Weuthen.

The firm's headquarters are moved to the Düsseldorf Media Harbor.

2005 Hermann Henkel joins the advisory board of the company.

2002 Gerhard G. Feldmeyer becomes a general partner and assumes direction of HPP KG together with Hermann Henkel and Joachim H. Faust.

2001 Dr. Helmut Hentrich dies at the age of 95.

1997 Helmut Hentrich and Hubert Petschnigg transfer their advisory capacities to Hans Joachim Stutz and Michael Zotter. Hubert Petschnigg dies at the age of 84. Joachim H. Faust along with Hermann Henkel becomes a general partner of the firm's management.

HPP Service GmbH is founded.

1995 HPP Laage & Partner Planungsgesellschaft mbH, which specializes in the construction of hospitals, is founded.

1992 Hermann Henkel and Rüdiger Thoma assume direction and liability as general partners of the management, Hans-Joachim Stutz and Michael Zotter are partners. Helmut Hentrich and Hubert Petschnigg belong to the advisory board of the company.

1977 HPP International Planungsgesellschaft mbH, which is devoted to increasing the firm's foreign activities, is founded.

1974 The direction and liability of the firm is transferred to Hans Joachim Stutz and Rüdiger Thoma. Helmut Hentrich and Hubert Petschnigg continue their work at HPP as part of the firm's management.

1972 The partnership is transformed into a limited commercial partnership.

1971 HPP Bau- und Projektmanagement GmbH is founded.

1969 By taking on of new partners, the firm is now called HPP Hentrich-Petschnigg & Partner.

1953 With the early death of Hans Heuser, the consortium is continued under the leadership of Hubert Petschnigg.

1935 Helmut Hentrich and Hans Heuser found the architecture firm.

1933 Helmut Hentrich opens an architecture office.